The COST TO EDUCATE each student at Quincy Notre Dame for the 2010-2011 school year is projected to be $5,700.00. We ask those parents who are financially able to assume the full cost of their students' education to consider doing so.

The TUITION for the FIRST student is $4,700.00 and for the SECOND student is $4,600.00. The third and fourth students attending Quincy Notre Dame at the same time are free.

- We will pay the FULL COST TO EDUCATE of $5,700.00 by June 30, 2010 by 1:00 p.m.
- We will pay the STUDENT TUITION of $4,700.00 by June 30, 2010 by 1:00 p.m.
- We choose to finance all or a portion of the cost with QND's designated bank. Any amount not financed through the bank must be paid to QND by June 30, 2010 by 1:00 p.m.

FINANCIAL AID:

- Please check here if you have applied for financial aid. You may anticipate hearing from QND by April 30, 2010 regarding the dollar amount of aid.

QUINCY NOTRE DAME HIGH SCHOOL FINANCIAL POLICY

FINANCIAL POLICY FOR THE SCHOOL YEAR:

Students whose tuition/book/fee payments are not current incur the following:

1. Delinquent more than 30 days anytime during the school year - non enrollment status until account is current
2. Delinquent as of May - nonparticipation in graduation activities, including Baccalaureate and Graduation Ceremonies
3. Delinquent as of July - non enrollment status for the next school year
4. Students with delinquent accounts will be ineligible to participate in sporting events and extracurricular events including Homecoming /Prom/ Educational Trips.
5. Accounts more than six (6) months past due will be turned over to Quincy Notre Dame's designated collection agency and student(s) will be given a non enrollment status until the balance of outstanding debt is paid in full.
6. Families with divorced or separated parents, each of whom accepts responsibility for a percentage of tuition and fee payments, must select one of the three Tuition Payment Options below. If one parent fails to fulfill his or her payment obligation, the other parent must assume financial responsibility for this debt. All charges must be kept current in order to avoid a delinquent account.

TUITION PAYMENT OPTIONS:

1. Pay full cost to educate
2. Pay current tuition cost
3. Finance tuition with Quincy Notre Dame's designated bank

TUITION/FEE REFUNDS:

Tuition/Fees are NON REFUNDABLE. Students transferring for disciplinary or other reasons will not be awarded tuition refunds. Bank loans must be paid in full for any transferring students. Delinquent account of transferring students will be turned over to Quincy Notre Dame's designated collection agency.
