Application for the Judy & Rick Haugh Merit Scholarship

(For Current QND Juniors)

This scholarship is being established by Judy and Rick Haugh as a part of their long time support of Quincy Notre Dame. It is their wish that deserving students be assisted financially as they pursue their studies at QND. Judy and Rick have been instrumental in establishing two other QND scholarships that are need based. This scholarship is to be merit based and is intended to recognize the achievements of the recipient as described in the criteria below.

- *Awarded to a student entering the 12th grade.
- *Student must have a B average.
- *Student must document 25 volunteer hours during 11th grade year.
- *Student must participate in a minimum of 3 extracurricular activities, one of which may be an athletic program.
- *Families of applicants MUST be a participant in the Gene Grawe Fund program.
- *Student must write an essay on the “Value of Catholic Education” to the Haugh family.

One (1) $1,000 scholarship will be awarded.
