Blessings & Well Wishes From The Teachers

I wish you the best in the next chapter of your life! - Mrs. Hurst

I miss seeing all the seniors. Over the last nine weeks of school, the halls were empty. That is no fun for the Dean of Students; come back and say hello after this chaos ends. Stay Strong and Go Raiders - Mr. Connell

I pray each of you grows deeper in your relationship with Christ as you continue on your journey. May God continue to reveal your unique personal vocation to you and may you have the courage to live it to the full. Remember, you will forever be a part of the Raider family and, if not before then, pray we will meet once again in heaven. - Mr. Young

Life is a journey...enjoy your ride!...Best wishes, Mrs. Oakley

Dear Class of 2020, I am so sorry that things ended the way they did. I hate that you had to miss out on so many of your senior year "lasts." I hope you know how much you are loved and cared about. Hang in there. I know God has big things in store for you. His plan is ALWAYS perfect, even when we don't understand it. Trust him always. Best wishes, and I will miss you all. Mrs. Altmix

Attack each day with an enthusiasm unknown to mankind! - Mr. Cornell

John 3:1 "I pray that all may go well with you and that you may be in good health, as it goes well with your soul." - Mrs. Deters

In these times of change, the senior class has had to rise above and adapt! May you always approach changes in your life like it's a new adventure! Best wishes! - Mrs. Kasparie

To the class of 2020: All the best to you! - Ms. Kaiser

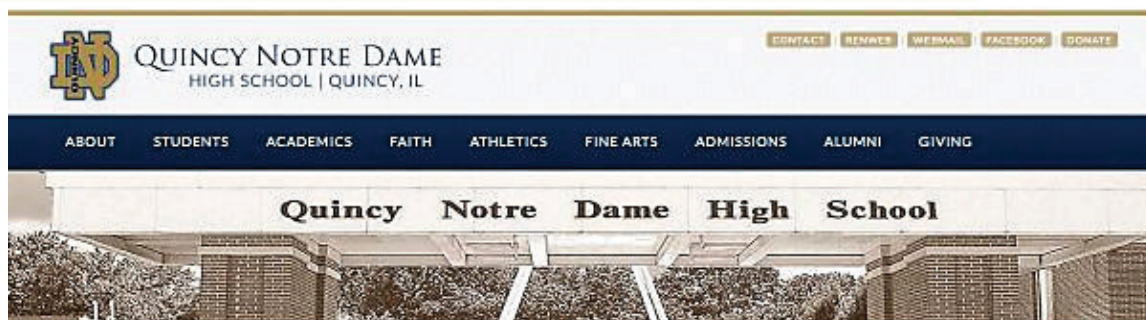

You have been our present. Best wishes for your future. - Mrs. Lask

¡Buena suerte! ¡Siempre hagan su mejor y sean honesto! - Señor Obert

You did it! You kids worked hard, played hard, and accomplished requirements. Remember QND fondly as you take these first steps into your future. God is with you. - Mrs. Anders

We Were Seniors When...

They took everything good out of the cage.

The corona virus hit and Logan Jones would never be kicked out of Schlegl's class again.

Mr. Robb returned to QND

The Coronavirus ruined our senior year and ruined everything fun

Australia caught on fire, WIIII was rumored to begin, members of the royal family broke off, Donald Trump had an impeachment trial

We couldn't leave our house for three months

We didn't think the corona virus was going to be this big of a deal

Tik Tok got big.

The pentagon released U.F.O. videos. Look it up I'm not kidding.

The Amazon rainforest was on fire.

Taylor Dietrich got Tik Tok famous

Our football team made it to the semi-finals

Kobe Bryant died

It was against the law to come within 6 feet of your friends

Every store was out of toilet paper

Cooking with the Paxton's happened.

A global pandemic happened, causing international lockdowns and the biggest economic downturn since the Great Depression.

A global pandemic postponed prom, cancelled the senior trip, and caused a virtual graduation

Thank You's From The Seniors

Dear Coach Steinkamp, Thanks for believing in me. - Sam

Dear Best Buffet, Thank you for having the best crab rangoons, noodles, and chicken on a stick out of everywhere I know. - Noah

Dear best friends, Thank you for keeping me sane and for showing me high school isn't awful even if it's not like High School Musical. - Anna

Dear Caroline and Corinne, Thanks for being my sister and the back nine iykyk. - Hailey

Dear Coach Cornell, Thank you for teaching me how to be a better man in life. - Zac

Dear Coach Orne, Thanks for writing passes to class for me and Katie. - Sydney H.

Dear Everyone, Thank you for welcoming me in and making my last 2.5 years of high school the best. - Nathan

Dear Liz, Thank you for putting up with me the last four years. I know it's been rough - Searra

Dear lunch tea losers, Thank you for being the best people I've ever met - Tori F.

Dear Morgan Frankenhoff, Thank you for forgiving me for smashing your beautiful dinosaur mug. I will NEVER forgive myself. - Layne

Dear Mrs. Strieker, Thank you for getting me through high school math. - Luke

Dear Mr. Robb and Mr. Young, Thank you for being an amazing example with faith. - Clair

Dear Mr. Robb, Thank you for asking me if I did my math homework every day. - Sophie

Dear Mr. Young and Mr. Robb, Thank you for always being there for me and my friends, especially at lunch! - Bella

Dear Mrs. Lask, Thank you for being the only teacher that treats your students like adults. - Esther

Dear Mrs. Lask's rainbow sweater, Thank you for being my sunshine on a cloudy day. - Erica

Dear Mrs. Scholz, Thank you for choir. It was my safe place throughout all of high school, and it was where I found my passion for music. I couldn't have made it through high school without you. - Julia

Dear Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Bozarth, Thank you for listening to me complain in between classes. - Tori A.

Dear Mrs. Smith, Thanks for letting me talk to you in between almost every class, causing me to be late to class all the time my whole senior year. - Matthew J.

Dear Mrs. Lask, Thank you for letting me drink coffee every morning in 1st hour. - Katie R.

Dear Mrs. Lask, Thankyou for being absolutely nothing like I thought you were going to be. You have been one of my favorite teachers at QND. - Noel

Dear Sammy, Thank you for being such a great acting partner in Frozen. It was so much fun to bring those scenes to life. - James

Dear Mr. Sheffield, Thanks for always picking on me in class - Shelby R.

Dear Tyler Peters, Thank you for always being so encouraging and making all of us laugh in Mr. Young's office. You are an amazing role model for high schoolers. - Meredith

Dear Mr. Klauser, Thank you for handling my constant breakdowns in your class. - Maggie M.

Dear Mr. Koettters, Thank you for loving the University of Alabama's football team. Roll Tide. - Riley Mahsman

Dear Mr. Obert, Thanks for our talks about sports and politics. - Hunter

Dear QND, Thank you for letting me open up and having the best senior year I could've asked for. - Riley Marshall

Dear Mrs. Roundtree, Thank you for teaching me ceramics and art. It helped further my passion to open my own art store and continue to push me towards my dream of being an artist. - Mason P.

Dear Mrs. Lask, Thanks for making class enjoyable. - Katie H.

Dear Mr. Young, Thank you for letting the seniors come hang out in your room during lunch. - Maddie D.

I've thoroughly enjoyed having you at QND. I hope that you will continue on a successful path. Know that we will be praying for you! - Mr. McDowell

I will miss you all, especially my regulars that stopped in my office for mints....don't think I didn't see you pocketing a couple extras. Believe in the Power of your Dreams. Your Futures are Bright. Congratulations QND Class of 2020. ~Mrs. Bozarth

May you all be happy, healthy, and successful in whatever you are moving on to. Stay true to yourself, and always remember how blessed you are!
- Mrs. McCulloch

Wishing each and every one of you the best in life. Remember to stay strong in your faith and focus on what is really important in life. - Mr. Klauser

Seniors, Wishing you adventures, success, and happiness for all your tomorrows. Stay committed to your dreams and they, too, will become reality. - Mrs. Harris

Dear Seniors, It is hard to believe your graduation is here! It has been such a pleasure meeting you, either during your eighth-grade visit to QND or through transferring and watching you grow as young adults through your senior year. With everything you have experienced, I am confident your class will have a positive impact on the future. Follow your dreams and best wishes! -Mrs. Vahlkamp

Rent all your college textbooks. I'm serious. Don't buy them. It's so not worth it. - Mrs. Roundtree

Congratulations Seniors! I really enjoyed having you in class. Especially from the middle of March until the end of the school year.
- Mr. Longo.

QND Class of 2020:

On Friday, March 13th, you finished your Senior Retreat, which ended up being the last time the Class of 2020 would be all together for their senior year.

This is supposed to be your year. The year for your senior prom, sporting events, clubs, and the rest of what senior year has to offer. You were supposed to be with your friends one last time before venturing into the unknown. This was THE YEAR that your entire schooling was building up to. But the end of your senior year was stripped away from you at the last moment.

Those of us who work at QND do so because we care above all else. I can tell you that the caring does not stop once you leave the walls of QND. There's nothing I, or anyone, can say to make up for that time you are losing in what is supposed to be one of the best years of your life. But I can offer some encouragement. Right now, you have the power to make the most out of this unfortunate situation. If the last four years has taught me anything, it's that the QND Class of 2020 is resilient, innovative, caring, and full of RAIDER PRIDE! This year may not be what you envisioned, but I'm eager to see what you do with it. After all, it is still very much YOUR YEAR!!
- Mr. Sheffield

Congratulations Class of 2020!! Best of luck in the next chapter of your life! Keep in touch with the Foundation Office of your accomplishments and any updated mailing address and email. We will miss you! - Mrs. Stacey Staff

To our Seniors: Our year was interrupted, but there have been so many memories made in spite of it all. Your lives are just beginning, and we, your teachers, are so excited at what the future holds for you! A very special shout-out to my choral students and the Spring Show cast and crew - I know what a wonderful show we were about to put on, and I am beyond proud of your work, talent and spirit. We have made beautiful music this year, and there will be so much more to come. God bless you all, friends. I will miss you.
- Mrs. Scholz

Congratulations to each of you as you graduate and follow your dreams! I wish you all the best in your future plans. Keep your faith close! You will be missed!
God bless, Lyn Strieker

You have already experienced difficulties in your life; use that experience to be adaptable to the world ahead. Good luck in your future endeavors and may God's blessings be ever around you! -Mrs. Untiedt

Seniors' Advice To Their Freshman Selves

Spend as much time with your friends and go to all of the games.

Don't act dumb.

There is a quizlet for everything.

Dear freshman Zac, do not try to be friends with one "clique". There are so many great people outside of your friend circle that you should meet earlier than I did.

Don't be afraid to branch out.

High school will fly by, make sure you enjoy every moment.

Enjoy high school while it lasts. It really does go by fast.

Crying in front of Mr. Obert won't get you anywhere.

If you think about doing something, just do it.

Go out more because you don't have any pictures with your friends.

Dear freshman self, stop caring about what people think of you! You are amazing, funny, and beautiful just the way you are. And keep posting your Snapchat stories no matter how many people hate them LOL.

Get your stuff done on time.

Go to every school and friend event because high school flashes by.

If you get in a fight with someone, don't wait until senior year to reach out and fix it.

Try harder in school.

Get more involved in groups. Put in the work now because it is worth it in the end.

Have as many sleepovers with your friends as you can.

Make friends now, don't wait for next year.

Please don't procrastinate. It will only bring you stress and screaming.

Grades aren't as important as you think they are.

Do better in classes, and no other opinion matters but your own.

Don't sweat it.

Don't take these four years for granted

Cherish your time here. You never know what will happen.

Show up on time.

Don't listen to what others say; they won't define you!

Try hard all four years and be involved.

Don't let your friends make up a stupid name for your friend group

Freshman year is the worst year of high school you'll have. Sophomore year is the best. Junior year starts out rough but gets better. Senior year looks to be the best then just ends with a finish so disappointing that you never see coming.

is this really going to matter in 5 years?

Always wear a collared shirt under your crew neck.

Get a 4-wheel drive truck.

Transfer to QND your freshman year and take more risks.

Work harder freshman year.

Be a little more outgoing.

Bro, chill out. It's going to be fine.

Never judge someone on the first day. Everyone is a little nervous or anxious on the first day of school.

Don't be scared of everyone.

Pay attention in freshman year math. It only gets worse, man.

Stop being shy. Actually meet some new people.

Creative & Not-So-Creative Homework Excuses

"I gave it to you. You should have it."

"It's the iPad's fault!"
(Works every time)

"The homework is at my dad's work in his car." (Let's just say that did not work.)

"Yes, Mrs. Schmitz, my homework was in that bundle of papers that you lost."

Back surgery

Can't say I've ever missed a homework assignment.

Eh. Not in the mood.

Having a seizure and being in the hospital on the first day of online learning

I didn't know not to use the iPad when I first transferred.

I just don't do them.

I don't miss homework assignments.

I lost it...

I needed more time to make it "perfect."

I thought that was due tomorrow.

I was at a cow show.

I was on the band trip and because of a different time zone I turned the paper in on time.

It was Thanksgiving break; I forgot.

My dad got mad at the refs after a basketball game and accidentally tore up all my papers.

My dad wanted to use it as an example of what not to do for his class.

My grandpa died.

My friend's sister's boyfriend's aunt's pet fish died, and I had to go to the funeral. (Didn't work)

My iPad is broken.

My mom threw it away.

Showbie wasn't working.

That I have it done, but I forgot it at home.

My most creative excuse was saying I left my homework at my other parent's house. (divorced parents LOL)

Saying I turned it in but really not doing it.

The teacher never gave it to me.

You mean some people don't turn in homework assignments?

Correction

In the last edition of The Broadcaster, Mr. & Mrs. Loyd's years of marriage were noted incorrectly. They will celebrate 30 years of marriage this coming December, not 25 as reported. This fact is important to the Loyd's to point out, as their oldest daughter is 27 years old.
