

Laudato Si' Daily Reflection Calendar (December 1 - December 31, 2022)

"Do I find God, or does God find me?"

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
"God is present in each moment: God is the giver, we are the receiver."				1	2	3
				Am I a person of hope?	God only wants the best for us.	God is in charge. Have hope.
4	5	6	7	8	9	10
We are one family with God.	God is calling. Will I answer?	God is with us. Take comfort.	Let the Holy Spirit guide you.	Trust and surrender like 'Mary.'	Pray for all people to find love.	Am I growing in my faith?
11	12	13	14	15	16	17
Feel good about yourself. God does.	Become closer with family and friends.	Pray for your parents and godparents.	Use actions, not only words to love.	Remember. We are preparing for love to take charge.	Do whatever is just for others.	Remember to pray before each meal.
18	19	20	21	22	23	24
Enjoy the spirit of love as you shop.	Pray for all parents expecting a new child.	Notice your guardian angel today.	Be patient. God will bless you today.	Your smile or patience will be a gift to others.	Enjoy decorating your house for others.	Place Jesus in your crib with love.
25	26	27	28	29	30	31
Let us pray for all expectant parents.	Pray for those who will be alone on Christmas.	Enjoy seeing Christ in others this Season.	Pray for all who are suffering this Christmas.	Thank God for always loving you.	Pray for your family. Living or deceased.	What has been your gifts from God this year!

Prepared by Laudatory Si', a study and discussion group in Quincy, Illinois, learning about our common home as written about in the encyclical by Pope Francis

