QND Community Support Produces Historical Results

The Quincy
Notre Dame

Foundation was excited to announce that the 2022 QND Fund Drive raised $576,512 in gifts and pledges exceeding its goal by more than $116,000. This is the largest amount raised through the QND Fund Drive since its inception in 1977.

"I am extremely pleased with the generosity and sacrifice that our constituents made to support QND," stated Kurt Stuckman, executive director of the QND Foundation.

"The record-breaking results from this Fund Drive show that donors understand the importance of Catholic education and the impact of their investment."

"The record-breaking results from this Fund Drive show that donors understand the importance of Catholic education and the impact of their investment." – Kurt Stuckman

The QND Fund Drive is the most vital fundraiser overseen by the QND Foundation and over the past 45 years has raised over $17.5 million. The Fund Drive keeps tuition affordable by paying a portion of the school's operating expenses to close the gap between the cost to educate and student tuition. It also provides tuition assistance to students. Currently, 35% of the QND student body receives financial assistance. The 2022 Fund Drive was led by co-chairpersons Lydia Miller '04 and Scott Smith.

"Support towards the QND Fund Drive enables students like me to receive a quality faith-based education. Thank you for investing in our future."

CATHOLIC HEART WORKCAMP

For more than 20 years, Quincy Notre Dame has participated in Catholic Heart Workcamp (CHWC). Founded in 1993, CHWC offers youth-friendly short term mission trips. This national organization offers students the opportunity to grow in their faith while serving others. Throughout the years, QND has traveled all across the country to states such as Florida, Montana, Colorado, Texas and Connecticut.

QND students and chaperones volunteer for one week in the summer to take this mission trip where they spend their days serving the community by helping with anything from yard clean-up, painting, helping non-profits, working with children, and more. "The impact CHWC makes on our students, particularly the interaction they have with the people they are serving face-to-face, makes it one of our most important ministry offerings each year," stated QND Director of Christian Formation Mike Young '98.

During the times they are not working, students participate in activities that challenge them to grow in their faith in an engaging, dynamic way. "The morning and evening programs allowed me to grow in my faith in a way I had never experienced before," said QND senior Ada Kurk. "Many opportunities are offered throughout the week such as Mass, Confession, and even Adoration."

Another unique aspect of CHWC is that students meet and interact daily with students from across the nation also attending the workcamp. Many of the friendships made last longer than that week and can last a lifetime.

Kurk continued, "It is such a neat experience to see teenagers from all over serving and worshipping together in one place." CHWC truly is an opportunity like no other.

ALL-STATE MUSICIANS

Five Quincy Notre Dame students were named 2023 Illinois All-State Musicians. Auditions were held throughout the state involving nearly 300 Illinois high schools.

students, priests, faculty,
staff, family and friends
joined in the celebration.

Alumni Spotlight

Sr. Ann Scholz '69

Sister Ann Scholz credits the example the School Sisters of Notre Dame (SSND) set during her high school years as the reason she was able to follow God's path. "The late sixties were turbulent times in society and the Church. It was a wonderful time to be a high school student at Notre Dame of Quincy," states Sr. Ann. "The SSND, who staffed the all-girls school, introduced us to the call of the Second Vatican Council to engage the world. I learned to analyze history, write a persuasive essay, and address injustice in society. It was their example of faith in action that led me to recognize God's call to religious life."

After graduating from Notre Dame, Sr. Ann professed her first vows in St. Louis in 1972. The following year, she received a bachelor's degree in history from the former Notre Dame College in St. Louis. She taught at various high schools in Iowa and Missouri until she was asked to further her education at the American University in Washington, D.C. In 1984 she received her master's degree in international education and in 1991 she earned her doctorate.

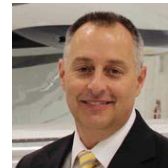

She went on to become an associate professor and director of study abroad at Notre Dame of Maryland University and later, 2002-2011, was the School Sisters of Notre Dame representative to the United Nations' Department of Public Information (DPI) and the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) in New York. From 2011 to 2022, Sr. Ann served as the associate director for social mission at the Leadership Conference of Women Religious in Silver Spring, Maryland. Sr. Ann celebrated her 50th Jubilee in the summer of 2022.

"My life in SSND has been filled with adventures and countless blessings," Sr. Ann continues. "The opportunities provided by rich and varied ministries opened my heart to a world longing for meaning and hungry for justice. It has been a gift to be able to journey with my SSND sisters around the world as together we seek to build God's beloved community."

Sr. Ann is the eldest of Charles and Nancy Scholz's seven children and boasts numerous nieces, nephews and grand nieces and nephews.

"I am certain that the education and mentoring I received while attending QND has profoundly shaped me and my continued success as a pilot. I am blessed to have had faith-centered teachers and mentors such as Al Knepler, Ray Heilmann and the late Dwain Preston. I thank them and many others for their unwavering, gentle and sometimes needed firm re-direction in efforts at shaping my development." – Brad Haubrich '86

Alumni Spotlight ADAM KLENE '07

Adam is the Director of Business Strategy & Analytics for the Chicago Bulls. His team focuses on building dashboards and reports for key stakeholders to showcase data and insights around priority initiatives. In his role, Adam oversees all ticket pricing recommendations and leads organizational planning efforts, sharing strategic insights to help the organization make more informed decisions about key operational goals and tactics. From reports on ticket sales performance to using data to inform how the Bulls cultivate fandom, Adam plays an integral role in helping senior leadership make actionable decisions on new products, marketing messages and more with the goal of improving fan engagement and growing consumer facing revenue streams. For Adam, working in sports is the perfect blend of his personal and professional passions.

"I love using data to solve complex strategic problems, and I get to do that on a daily basis with a brand and product that is known around the world," states Adam. "Growing up I have countless memories of going to sporting events with my family and friends, and it is incredibly rewarding to be a part of creating those lasting memories for others through the power of sport."

Adam graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in finance and received his MBA from Dartmouth in 2016. He believes his time at QND prepared him for his college and professional life. "QND set the foundation for me to be successful in college and beyond," says Adam. "QND gave me a well-rounded education, both inside and outside the classroom, that helped me be the best version of myself."

Adam continues, "From AP History and Calculus classes to the QND Band to the golf team to class retreats, I was able to explore different interests and identify what areas I was most passionate about. I had many teachers who cared about me deeply and provided support and encouragement to help me achieve my goal of attending the University of Notre Dame. Lastly, I built many close friendships while at QND that persist to this day."

Adam and his wife Danielle reside in downtown Chicago.

"At QND the lessons, values and sense of community extended well beyond our four years in high school. The foundation we built at QND carries on into our daily lives as we raise our daughters and grow in our faith." – Lucas '03 & Angie (McGinnis) '05 Frageman

The QND Madrigals performed at their annual Christmas Concert on December 12, 2022.

The QND Marching Band successfully participated in Quincy's 2022 Octoberfest.

QND HOUSE SYSTEM

QND held its first Raider Cup for the four House Communities – Matthew, Mark, Luke and John – in April 2022. The 2021-22 inaugural winners include the Community of Matthew and the House of St. Pantaleon.

Each community is made up of four family houses with roughly 25 students, grades 9-12. Throughout the year, the houses receive points for attendance at designated concerts and athletic events, friendly gym and field competitions, GPA average, community service and more. The Raider Cup is the final event to earn house and community points through fun activities and competitions.

There was a lot of enthusiasm and energy at the trainings for the 32 student leaders this past summer led by the two school captains. QND junior Delaney Beard states, "QND's House System is a student-based leadership program that builds a stronger school community across all grade levels. As a school captain, I am enjoying the increased school spirit this year!"

"My Quincy Notre Dame education helped me prosper professionally and spiritually. It has helped me maintain a strong foundation of faith that I have passed on to my children and grandchildren. My parents sacrificed to send me to QND. It was a sacrifice that was well worth it!" – Ann (Vogel) McKinney '60

STEUBENVILLE CONFERENCE

Members of the QND Campus Ministry Student Leadership Team participated in the Steubenville Conference in Springfield, Mo., over the summer where they took part in Mass, Confession, worship with 3,500 other high schools, discussions in small groups and more.

GRANDPARENTS' MASS

QND students welcomed their grandparents and other special guests to Mass on December 8, 2022, to celebrate the Feast of the Immaculate Conception.

INTRODUCTION TO COMPUTER CODING

Quincy Notre Dame was excited to partner with Google software engineer Mark Schmidt who spearheaded an opportunity to offer computer coding during the Fall semester as part of the Freshman Seminar course. Mark, who is married to 2013 QND graduate

Jamie (Ehrhart) Schmidt, led the four-week exercise for QND students using various Python programming projects. Students started with a few simple programs to learn basic concepts, then moved on to a series of fun projects including a calculator, a clone of the popular Wordle game, and a virtual assistant that collects content from the internet.

"I hope that this course gives the students a better appreciation and understanding of the technology that makes up such a large part of our world," states Mark. "My goal is to guide students through that initial learning curve so they can create projects that bring them joy."

This initiative was designed to give students a foundation in software engineering and provide them with an experience that may spark a potential career opportunity.

"I received a Catholic education from Christian Brothers, now QND, a high school that taught me to have confidence in my decisions and actions in my personal life as well as in my business career. I was taught to have respect for all and to pay it forward in all aspects of life to the next generation, which is of the utmost importance. Thank you for a great Catholic education and for instilling in me the great attributes that Quincy Notre Dame represents to this day." – Andy Blaesing '70

“Our time at QND has provided a foundation for our life journey. The strong academic curriculum and supportive community were pivotal to our development. We are grateful for our time at QND and the relationships developed and experiences gained.”

QUINCY NOTRE DAME FOUNDATION

Providing the Means to Keep Tuition Affordable

Message from Executive Director

As you can see in this year's newsletter, our students have had an exceptional year at QND inside and outside the classroom. The QND Foundation has also had an extremely successful year thanks to the generous support of our benefactors. The 2022 Fund Drive reached a new high, our scholarship portfolio continues to grow, we received one of our largest estate gifts in school history, we continue to build our Adopt-a-Student Program funds, and much more.

QND remains steadfast in providing a high-quality faith-based education and we could not do that without you.

Thank you for believing in the rich history and tradition that makes QND a premier secondary educational institution. Your investment makes a real difference in the lives of our students. We look forward to 2023 and wish you a happy new year!

Kurt Stuckman '91 QND Foundation Executive Director

QND FOUNDATION RECEIVES $500,000 ESTATE GIFT

The QND Foundation received a substantial bequest from the estate of Charles Lugo. This $500,000 gift from the estate will be invested for the benefit of Quincy Notre Dame High School. This estate gift is one of the largest gifts that the QND Foundation has received.

"Charlie was a humble, kindhearted and compassionate man who deeply loved the Quincy community and QND," stated Kurt Stuckman, executive director of the QND Foundation. "He loved spending time with people and was instrumental in making calls for the QND Fund Drive. This transformational gift will cement his legacy forever in the lives of QND families and students. We are humbled by Charlie's generosity and dedication to making a lasting impact."

Raider Pride Planned Giving Society

The Raider Pride Planned Giving Society was established in 2016 to honor individuals who have shown uncommon commitment to Quincy Notre Dame in the form of a planned gift. Donors who arrange to benefit QND through planned gifts provide transformational support enabling QND to continue providing secondary Catholic education to future generations.

Timothy L. Haley '09 Scholarship

"Our family created the Timothy L. Haley Scholarship right after Timothy passed away in 2017. We wanted Timothy's legacy to live on through a scholarship to QND students. Since he was a three-sport athlete with a high GPA all four years at QND, the recipient has to be involved in sports and do well academically. Sending our four sons to QND was one of the best decisions we made as parents. Everyone always talks how QND is one big family which we can testify to that. When Timothy passed away, QND had a beautiful prayer service for him." – Timothy's mother, Dorothy (Grawe) Haley '84

This scholarship is funded through the annual Heart Check for Tim event that was started in 2019 with a wiffle ball tournament, motorcycle poker run, basket raffle, silent auction, live music and with food and drinks. Quincy Medical Group Cardiology department provides free heart screenings at the benefit – the main reason the event is held. Timothy died from an unknown heart issue that can only be detected with an ultrasound. Money raised from the event also goes to the QMG Foundation in his name to help families with travel expenses for cardiology care outside our local community.

Adopt-a-Student Program

The Adopt-a-Student program raises funds to directly assist families who have tuition assistance needs above and beyond what was awarded through QND's financial assistance scholarship program. This program is managed by the QND Foundation and offers the opportunity for donors to provide financial assistance to students who may not have the chance to attend QND without their support.

This year, several QND families have experienced extraordinary financial challenges. The QND Foundation recently set a goal to raise $50,000 for this program to replenish and build funds and ensure they can continue assisting families with tuition needs in the future. Every child should have the opportunity to be educated in a faith-filled environment and tuition costs should not be a deterrent.

To date, over $25,000 has been raised towards the goal. If you are interested in making a tax-deductible cash or stock donation, or would like more information on the program, please contact Kurt Stuckman at (217) 224-2598 or kstuckman@qndhs.org.

CLASS OF 1981 SCHOLARSHIP Class members presented QND with a donation of more than $50,000 for their class scholarship. The Class of 1981 astonishingly raised these funds in two and a half weeks.
